Presidents Message

November 2015

We are well into the fall program and there are lots of exciting events ahead! Participating in the ADVOCACY, EDUCATION or NETWORKING activities, are ways to grow personally plus contribute to CFUWVictoria and our communities.

In addition to the annual activities of our organizers there are other ways you can participate. Here are a few:

- Let your name stand for BC Council! The positions open are The following positions are open for the 2016-18 CFUW BC Council: Secretary, Treasurer, Advocacy Chair, Communications Chair and Resolutions Chair.
- Advocate for accessible childcare! BC Council has gathered stories of how the lack of childcare affects people ability to work and to end the cycle of poverty. Watch our website for updates soon.
- Fundraising. We will again have Poinsettia and wreaths for sale <https://www.growingsmilesfundraising.com/index.php?p=winter-fundraiser> We are also exploring a fundraising project with Dupruis Auction <https://dupuis.ca/>. If you are interested in helping with fundraising projects, please send me a email.

CFUW Victoria Executive. In January we will begin to look for people to volunteer and let their names stand for the CFUWVictoria Executive. It is a wonderful opportunity. Please let me know if you are interested!
